WHO Member States agree way forward to conclude Pandemic Agreement

28 May 2024 | News release | Geneva, Switzerland | Reading time: Less than a minute (267 words)

The World Health Assembly (WHA) today recognized the progress made over the past two years by Member States to develop a pandemic agreement and strengthen the International Health Regulations (IHR, 2005). Governments meeting in Geneva for the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly are in talks to advance these two efforts, which aim to boost the world's ability to better able to prevent and respond to the threat of future pandemics.

WHO Member States agreed to continue to work during the World Health Assembly, which ends on 1 June, with the aim to:

- finalize the package of amendments to the IHR (2005)
- agree the timing, format and process to conclude the pandemic agreement.

During today's session, the WHA first considered agenda item 13.4 on the draft pandemic

World Health Assembly agreement reached on wide-ranging, decisive package of amendments to improve the International Health Regulations

And sets date for finalizing negotiations on a proposed Pandemic Agreement

1 June 2024 | News release | Geneva, Switzerland | Reading time: 4 min (992 words)

In an historic development, the World Health Assembly, the annual meeting of its 194 member countries, today agreed a package of critical amendments to the International Health Regulations (2005) (IHR), and made concrete commitments to completing negotiations on a global pandemic agreement within a year, at the latest, and possibly in 2024. These critical actions have been taken in order to ensure comprehensive, robust systems are in place in all countries to protect the health and safety of all people everywhere from the risk of future outbreaks and pandemics.

These shall make war
with the Lamb, and
the Lamb shall overcome them: for
he is Lord of lords,
and King of kings: and
they that are with him
are called, and
chosen, and faithful.

Awake, awake, stand
up, O Jerusalem,
which hast drunk at
the hand of the LORD
the cup of his fury;
thou hast drunken
the dregs of the cup
of trembling, and
wrung them out.

(Isaiah 51:17)

Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province,...

giving orders that unless the saints should yield their peculiar faith, give up the Sabbath, and observe the first day of the week, the people were at liberty after a certain time to put them to death.

(Ellen White in Early Writings, p. 282)

But in this hour of trial
the saints were calm
and composed,
trusting in God and
leaning upon His promise that a way of escape would be made for them.
